Thought for the Month

“Give me six hours to chop down a tree, I will use the first four hours to sharpen the axe”

Abraham Lincoln (1809 to 1865) was a famous lawyer, orator and perhaps the greatest president of America. There are two events which are very prominent in his life. His emancipation proclamation which paved the way for the abolition of slavery. His Gettysburg address is the most famous piece of oratory in American history.

What he meant by the above statement is that preparation is more important than presentation or performance.

Some Biblical illustrations related to Lincoln's statement.

Abraham after receiving the promise of God at the age of 75, had to wait patiently for 25 years (till he was 100 years) for his promised son to be born.

God trained Moses 40 years in the greatest palace of that time, the next 40 years in the deserts as a shepherd feeding the sheep of his Father-in-law Jethro and the final 40 years as the liberator and leader of about 2 million Israelites from the Egyptian bondage to real freedom in the promised land of Canaan.

Jesus our precious Lord took 30 years to prepare Himself for His great ministry of three and a half years.
